

Students' Code of Ethics

Introduction

As LSQ students, we are proud to belong to our school community. We recognize that our behavior reflects not only on us as individuals but also on our school, our families, and our country. By following this Code of Ethics, we show respect, responsibility, and integrity inside and outside the classroom.

Responsibilities Towards School

- Follow all school rules and policies.
- Respect school property and keep the campus clean and safe.
- Attend classes regularly and arrive on time.
- Represent the school honorably in all activities, inside and outside LSQ.

Responsibilities Towards Learning

- Take learning seriously and always do your best.
- Complete assignments honestly - no cheating, plagiarism, or dishonesty.
- Respect the learning environment of others by listening and participating positively.

Responsibilities Towards Teachers and Staff

- Show respect, politeness, and cooperation at all times.
- Follow instructions and seek clarification respectfully when needed.
- Appreciate teachers' efforts and work together with them for your success.

Responsibilities Towards Fellow Students

- Treat classmates with kindness, fairness, and respect—no bullying, insults, or discrimination.
- Help build a safe and inclusive school environment.
- Support classmates in teamwork and encourage one another's success.

Responsibilities Towards Yourself

- Uphold honesty, responsibility, and integrity in all your actions.
- Maintain a decent and appropriate appearance that respects the school's image.
- Stay away from harmful or unsafe behavior, including substance use or violence.

Responsibilities Towards Society

- Show respect for Qatari values, traditions, and national identity.
- Contribute positively to your community and represent your school with pride.
- Participate in activities that promote service, responsibility, and leadership.
